Dear Anne:

I remembered you immediately upon receiving your letter. I was pleased to learn of what you are doing in Dallas, and would like nothing better than getting to see you some Sunday here in Abilene at the Highland church.

The work being done in Atlanta is a very exciting work and is being carried on by a number of collegians and recent college graduates employed in various ways in the Atlanta area. No place offers the job opportunities that Atlanta does and I'm convinced this particular group of New Testament Christians is having a vital impact on the city and the campuses there.

You may write the Decatur Church of Christ, 1677 Scott Boulevard, Decatur, Georgia, 30033. Brother Archie Crenshaw is the minister for this church and will be able to provide full information about their work.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro. Chalk,

Looking at the signature won't help - you won't recognize my name. It may help to say that I first met you personally at the Christian Student Center in Knoxville, Tenn. - the tall dark headed girl with a face full of freckles - you don't remember, it doesn't matter; just thought you might like to know with whom you are corresponding. I need favor - could you please put ie in touch with the group evangelists in Atlanta, Georgia who are involved campus or student efforts.

They mailed some literature me last year, but in moving the letter became misplaced. believe they were looking for interested Christians who could move and work in that area. Have I given you enough information? If you understand the above description please forward their address to me. If not - oh dear - what next?

I hope to come over to Adeline hear you now that I am living in Dallas.

At Behel, the Christian Student Director, in Knoxville is the proud father of a baby girl, Kimberly Lane, born January 12.

Me? Well I am now the director "of a senior citizens' program at Schepps Community Center and am rapidly becoming Jewish-because that's what the center is. Did you know Passover is April 21? Happy Hanukkah!

In Christian love
Anne Shiffin
